BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that as he could find no space in the train to Mysore on the 6th June 1903, owing to its being over crowded and as he had already travelled for more than 100 miles, he broke the journey at Bangalore for the day

NOTES AND ORDERS.

In reply to G. O. No. S&A 158 dt. the 5th August 1903, the Dy. comm^r of Hassan submits that the journey could not be continued to Mysore on that date (4th June/03) as the train to Mysore was quite full and hence no seat could be got, and that as he had moreover travelled more than 100 mls the previous day, it was found necessary to break the journey at Bangalore.

Under the rules, the Deputy Commissioner's claim for Batta for halt at Bangalore on the 4th June/03 is inadmissible. But as he says that he had to stay at Bangalore owing to want of accommodation in the Train, it is a matter for consideration whether the claim may be allowed as a special case.
